

SOUTH KOREAN MARINES SPEARHEAD DIRECT ASSAULT TO WITHIN A HALF-MILE OF HEART OF SEOUL; ARMY AND LEATHERNECKS MAKE DRIVE TO SURROUND CAPITAL

Army Forces Seize Hub of Suwon and Its Valuable Airfield

8,000 REDS IN SEOUL Allied Troops Score New Gains Up To 10 Miles From Old Beachhead

By Howard Handelman
Far Eastern Director, INS

TOKYO, Sept. 22.—(INS)—South Korean marines spearheaded a direct assault to within a half mile of Seoul's heart today while American leathernecks and Army troops pressed a drive to surround the beleaguered capital.

An estimated 8,000 red defenders inside Seoul faced the double threat of encirclement and annihilation as U. S. Seventh Division troops swept widely around the city's southern flank and marines pushed along its northern edges.

The army forces seized the hub of Suwon and its valuable airfield, 19 miles south of Seoul, without encountering opposition. This represented an inland advance of 24 miles southeast to Suwon from the port of Inchon where the Seventh Division followed the leathernecks ashore last week-end.

Gen. Douglas MacArthur's briefing officer in Tokyo announced late Friday that Suwon, a major Korea's principal rail-highway artery leading up to Seoul from the south, was captured Thursday night.

He said that American marines, who thrust into Seoul's southwest environs to the Han River opposite the capital's business area, had completed their occupation of the industrial suburb of Yongdungpo after heavy fighting.

But the spokesman added he could not say whether these units had entered Seoul proper as yet.

As the battle to liberate Seoul neared a climax, Allied troops scored new gains up to ten miles in the breakout offensive from the old United Nations beachhead in southeast Korea.

A field dispatch from International News Service war correspondent Irving Levine, received at 5:52 p. m. Friday (3:52 a. m. EDT), quoted an American officer as calling—

WORLD NEWS IN BRIEF

Secretary Acheson's proposal that the United Nations General Assembly act against aggression without Security Council sanction was placed on the Assembly's agenda under the heading "United Action for Peace." The steering committee approved all but three items. One was deferred until next year. The United States motion that the Assembly recommend action on the Formosa and the Soviet attack on "American aggression in China" came up today.

Smaller nations approved the Acheson proposal, but France and Britain were reserved. Approval also came from Governor Dewey and Carlos P. Romulo.

The United States proposal for a Japanese peace treaty will suggest United Nations control over the Ryukyu and Bonin Islands, with the United States as administrator, it was said. No restrictions would be put on Japan's rearming or on her industry.

The House, responding to Administration pleas, killed a proposal to ban aid to foreign countries shipping war potentials to Soviet areas and sent the conference report on the $17,000,000,000 emergency defense bill to the Senate.

Further curbs on consumer credits, with higher down payments and less time in which to complete in-

John Longbottom 1st In Point Scoring System

A business meeting of the Bristol Aeromodelers was held Wednesday evening. Attendance was satisfactory in view of the fact that this was the first indoor meeting since May.

Point scores were tallied and over $50 in prizes awarded to the following members: John Longbottom, 1st, with 144 points; David Baker, 2nd, 142 points; William Smyrl, 127 points; Thomas Pearson, 126 points; Paul Karp, 108 points; Albert Abrams, 91 points; Gilbert Engle, 89 points; Norman Leveschel, 82 points; Charles Rauch, 69 points; William Kopack, 68 points.

A discussion took place concerning the beginning of a new point system and revising rules of the old one, but this will be decided at a future meeting.

Other future activities were discussed. Among them was an indoor model meet for exhibiting large models of all types, and a contest for 1/2 A and A class controlled models. Turner Ashby, Jr., volunteered as a committee of one to find a suitable location for it.

With Vice-President James Van Sant, Jr., now attending Bucknell University, a new vice-president, Albert Abrams, Sr., was elected to that office.

Announcements were made concerning a Bucks County Federation of Model Clubs contest here on Oct. 1st, a team racing model contest to be held at Quakertown on Oct. 15th, and the next Aeromodelers indoor meeting Oct. 4th. All members were urged to bring additional members to that meeting.

Residents are reminded to make the change by advancing their clocks 11 hours before retiring, Saturday night, thus "gaining" one hour.

Increased Demand For Typists and Stenographers

The many inquiries regarding the typing and shorthand classes which are scheduled to be given by The Pennsylvania State College Class Center at the Bristol High School starting Monday, October 2nd, prompted the late registration dates of September 25th, 26th and 28th, according to Alfred E. Lewis, administrative head.

High school graduates, as well as others who have not completed high school, who are presently employed as factory workers and sales clerks in the Bristol area, have decided to qualify themselves for the many openings which now exist in the clerical field. Recent figures released by the employment services indicate a great demand for typists and stenographers.

The Pennsylvania State College itself has been advertising in the Philadelphia papers for the above mentioned skills.

The classes in typing and shorthand will be limited in size to enable the instructors to give personal attention to individual students. Mr. Lewis urges those who are interested in qualifying themselves in this field to apply immediately as there are just a few openings left in these courses.

Father of Two Charged With Molesting Youngsters

A 28-year-old father of two children will get a hearing tonight on charges of molesting two young girls last Saturday.

Chief of Bristol Township Police Joseph Seader identified the man as Robert Allen, of West avenue and Ford road, Mud Town lane, near Fergusonville.

Chief Seader says that Allen picked up two girls, ages five and seven, in Bristol Terrace II last Saturday at about 5:30 p. m. He is reported to have driven them about for an hour, and then is said to have taken the girls to a wooded section off Magnolia road, where he molested them.

At about 6:45 he allowed the girls to go and they reported the incident to their parents. The mothers called Chief Seader, who began an investigation and finally was able to locate the spot where the children were taken. There he found a letter which the man had presumably dropped accidentally.

Following discovery of the letter, Chief Seader narrowed his investigation down to Allen, who was then arrested last night. Chief Seader says Allen has signed a statement admitting the act.

Allen will get a hearing at seven o'clock this evening before Justice of the Peace Max Lawrence, Landreth Manor, on charges of indecent assault and battery.

A two-car collision at the intersection of Route 13 and Haines road last night severely injured four Bristol residents, including two sisters who may have suffered fractures of the skulls.

In two other accidents, a 15-year-old Andalusia girl suffered a broken left leg when her motor-bicycle collided with an automobile, and a truck driver escaped injury when his truck turned over after he swerved to avoid hitting a car coming the wrong way on a one-way roadway on Route 1, at Janney.

Russians Again Slow Down Truck Traffic

Berlin.—The Russians imposed another slowdown today on truck traffic between Berlin and the Western occupation zones. Between 120 and 140 trucks soon were lined up at the main check point of Helmsdorf, which was passing only two to five vehicles an hour. This was another Soviet move in the recent boiling up of the cold war, which has included kidnappings, riots and attempted entries into western sectors of Berlin.

Mystery Surrounds Woman's Condition

Philadelphia.—Mystery today surrounded the manner in which an attractive 22-year-old Canadian woman was found unconscious with a skull fracture in the main ballroom of a mid-city hotel. The victim, Mrs. Audrey Tapley, of Vancouver, B. C., was reported in serious condition in Hahnemann Hospital after undergoing an emergency operation. Police said Mrs. Tapley was found sprawling on the ballroom floor by William L. Hammond, manager of an Atlantic City Hotel. Hammond is being held as a material witness. Physicians at Hahnemann report that, in their opinion, Mrs. Tapley's injury could not have been received in a fall. The skull fracture indicated she had been struck with "a blunt instrument," they said. The victim's husband, police said, waited more than two hours in their car in front of the hotel after she failed to keep an appointment to meet him there.

Soviet "Aggression" Motion Headed for Defeat

Flushing Meadow, N. Y.—A Soviet move to place before the U. N. Assembly "the question of American aggression against China" is headed for defeat today in the 14 nation "steering committee" which arranges the working program. The Russian motion is aimed at laying the groundwork for a tremendous propaganda offensive against the United States in the assembly on Korea, Manchuria, Formosa and Communist China itself. On the other hand, a U. S. proposal that American fleet protection of Formosa as announced by President Truman in June be discussed is certain to get quick approval for the agenda.

THE WORKHORSE SHIPS

How many troop transports there were in the great 270-ship armada off Inchon is still a secret. But it is no secret that there must be transports—plenty of them—for an amphibious task of such magnitude. In a day when airplanes carry military personnel of all ranks, it's possible to forget that surface ships are still the main way of getting troops from here to there.

The growing hull of the 48,000-ton super liner United States has just been roughly turned away from round-the-world cruises, dance music and evening gowns. Decoration will be functional. There will be less emphasis on chromium and deep-pile carpet—and more on rigging, as many bunks as space will allow for.

It is revealed also that the name will not be the United States any more. That's the name originally assigned to the super carrier that was laid down, also at Newport News, but was sidetracked (temporarily at least) by former Secretary of Defense Johnson.

Under the $18,000,000 ship-removal item in the defense budget a half dozen Victory ships will be put back into service by the Maritime Commission. A vast flotilla of these is parked in the Hudson River. It doesn't look as if a large shipbuilding program need be undertaken in the foreseeable future.

FOOTBALL IN POLITICS

Oklahoma can always be depended upon to put a new twist to politics. The Democratic state organization came up with a scheme to give football a prominent part in the fall campaign. It planned to broadcast all Oklahoma University games in the name of the party.

As sponsors, it is presumed a few kind words would be said in behalf of the party's candidates for state and congressional offices. Announcement of the plan, which was advertised by billboards erected throughout the state brought vigorous protests from the Republicans. They charged political favoritism on the part of university regents, and claimed football was to be prostituted in behalf of politics.

The Democratic party had an answer for these charges. Why not keep commercialism out of the broadcasts? Why should beer and cigarettes be given the opportunity to advertise when a nice, clean political party was willing to do the job? They were even willing to let the Republicans get in on the plan, permitting them to broadcast games played after election day, in which the Democrats would have no further interest.

But nothing will come of it. University regents will refuse to permit political sponsorship of the games. How the innovation would have been received by the voters remains unanswered. Since the party in power is presumed to give the people everything they want, the populace might have regarded the scheme with favor.

PICTURE SALES

NEW YORK (INS)—The business of having stars follow their pictures around the country to plug them with personal appearances reached a new high recently during the big ballyhoo for the film, "No Way Out," at New York's Rivoli theater. On the day of the film's opening, Linda Darnell actually sat in the box office and sold tickets.

South Korean Marines Within Half-Mile of Seoul

ing Red reverses on the southeast front "almost but not quite a rout." South Korean troops near the east coast recaptured the junction city of Kigye, eight miles northwest of the liberated port of Pohang. Other South Korean units dashed northward ten miles within a few hours to within two and a half miles southeast of the major red base of Uisong and were expected to enter that city tonight.

U. S. Army forces which had crossed the Nakdong in the Waegwan area rammed six miles beyond the river to within 12 miles southeast of Kunchon, a big hub astride the rail-highway artery to Seoul, 115 air miles to the northwest.

Increasing thousands of North Korean invaders were falling in battles to escape pursuit or entrapment and hundreds were surrendering daily to save their lives.

A communique from Gen. MacArthur's headquarters listed 5,862 troops lost by the communists during Thursday's operations alone. Of these, 5,430 were killed or wounded by Allied land and air forces, while 432 were taken prisoner.

The honor of being the first to enter their own national capital was given the South Korean marines. This recalled the World War II episode in which Gen. Jacques Leclerc's French First Army troops comprised the initial Allied liberation force sent into Paris.

Backed up by U. S. leathernecks on Seoul's northwest fringes, the South Koreans plunged to within less than half a mile from the city's geographical center by Friday midday.

International News Service War Correspondent Bernard Kaplan, with the American marines in the capital's outskirts, reported at 2:25 Friday afternoon (1:25 a. m., EDT) that the South Koreans encountered only sporadic red opposition.

They wiped out considerable numbers of Communist snipers in street and house-to-house fighting as they closed in on the heart of the city of a million residents.

Tank-led American marines meantime pressed a pincers drive to envelop Seoul around its northern and southern edges and chop off its red defenders from all means of reinforcement.

curd. Damage to the bicycle was estimated at $200. State Police say Bruce will be charged with failing to yield the right of way, and the girl with driving without a license.

At Janney, truck driver George Coley, 36, of 2546 E. Dauphin street, Kensington, told State Police that he was traveling toward Philadelphia at about 11 p. m. when he saw a car coming the wrong way on the one-way road. The brakes on his semi-tractor-trailer locked as he swerved to the left, and the truck turned over.

Coley escaped injury. Damage to the truck and its cargo of sugar was estimated at $8000. The other car failed to stop.

3M To Construct $250,000 Branch Warehouse & Office

ST. PAUL, Minn., Sept. 22—The Minnesota Mining & Manufacturing Co. has announced plans for the construction of a $250,000 branch warehouse and office building in Cleveland, Ohio.

It will be located on Elmwood avenue near West 117th Street.

The one-story, steel and masonry structure will contain 30,000 square feet of floor space, with outside dimensions 150 by 200 feet, according to C. P. Pesek, the firm's vice-president in charge of engineering.

General contractors on the project are the Leonard H. Krill Co., Inc. Architects and engineers, working in conjunction with the 3M company engineers, are Dalton & Dalton Associates.

The building will be served by New York Central rail trackage and will have complete truck loading facilities, Pesek said. It is scheduled for completion about Jan. 1.

Products of the company include pressure-sensitive adhesive tapes, coated abrasives, adhesives, reflective products, roofing granules, electrical and sound recording tapes, industrial coatings and chemicals.

New Idea in Dishwashing

Operating on a "revolutionary" principle of automatic dishwashing, this new Youngstown Kitchens dishwasher will do the family's dishes in less than 10 minutes. The young lady holds the partially filled upper basket to show how cups, glasses and silverware are positioned. A lower basket holds plates, larger dishes and pans. The machine will hold table service for six people. The tube in the middle of the tub is a jet tower which spins and throws powerful streams of water which shear food particles off dishes. Water at 130 degrees is delivered from a booster heater tank in the machine. On sale in Bristol at RICHMAN'S, 315 Mill St. (Adv.)

of your car which she recognized as being your automobile in addition.

"You must have lied outrageously during the trial here. Your people have to suffer, and I think you would have an easier conscience if you had admitted your guilt," Judge Biester remarked.

The defendant, who said he has only been employed for about three months, explained he was out of work all winter.

"If you weren't working you can't afford to hang out at top-rooms and go to two 'movies' in one night," said Judge Biester. "I want you to pay your parents for this fine and costs of prosecution."

Ralph Martin Schwind, 24, Penn-del, testified he and his fiancée were just about to park their car about 12:30 at night when it was sideswiped by the defendant's.

Ralph M. Schwind, 24, Penn-del, the prosecutor, testified that he and his fiancée, Miss June E. Comly, Hulmeville, were riding along Washington lane, near Hulmeville, June 10, when they decided to pull over to the side of the road.

Schwind said he had just pulled his car over to the side of the road when it was sideswiped by the defendant's car which had been following it. It was between midnight and one o'clock in the morning.

Miss Comly testified she recognized the car which kept on going as that of the defendant. No one was hurt.

Trooper Edward T. Miles, of the Langhorne sub-station of the Pennsylvania State Police, testified there were paint markings on the defendant's car which were the same color as those of the prosecutor's car, but that Delano explained they were old paint scrapings.

Trooper Emil Awgila, of the P. S. P., corroborated Trooper Miles' testimony.

The defendant, who testified he went to the "movies" in Croydon that night, denied that he used Washington Lane on his way home.

"The paint marks on my car must have gotten there while it was standing on the 'movie' parking lot," said the defendant.

His parents, Elbert and Lillian Delano, and a brother, William, 17, all testified that Harry said nothing about having been in an accident earlier in the evening.

Frank Carver, Buckingham Valley, who operate a service station near Bristol, testified the defendant stopped there that evening and that he noticed nothing unusual about the car.

J. Leslie Kilcoyne, defense counsel, spoke to the jury an hour. He was followed by Assistant District Attorney Vanartsdalen.

Henry Saby, one of five bandits who held up the Owls' Club, Perkies, on Sept. 11, 1947, when five shots were fired at the watchman, pleaded guilty yesterday before Judge Keller. He has been in jail in Berks county recently.

Hear Executive Secretary Of Women Voters' League

NEWTOWN, Sept. 22—Miss Muriel Ferris, executive secretary of the National League of Women Voters, was the guest speaker at the membership tea held at "Fieldstone Farm," the home of the president, Mrs. Robert Biddle, 34, Wednesday afternoon.

Miss Ferris spoke of the projects of the league, nationally and internationally, and stated "it is our responsibility to keep our economic condition on a sound basis and to preserve our form of government and extend its benefits. We must continue to support the United Nations and with renewed effort help it to succeed. In America, the voice of the citizen counts, each having his influence on the state and national government." The real work of the league, she said, is not done in Washington, but by the active participation of the citizens in their own government, by the individual in his own community. The league has a membership of 93,000, "but it is essential that that membership be enlarged, thus to interest many more in the work of the government."

Mrs. Biddle conducted the business meeting. Mrs. John Chambers reported on a meeting she and Mrs. Eugene Robertson had attended in the interest of mental health, and a mental health clinic for this area. There are two such clinics—one at Doylestown and one at Norristown. It is suggested that such clinics should be located at Bristol and Quakertown.

The Newtown League will sponsor a candidate's meeting at George School, October 10th at eight p. m., which the Junior New Century Club and the public will attend.

Mrs. Robertson reported seven new members: Mrs. James H. Randall, Jr., Mrs. Marion W. Elwell, Mrs. Ernest Seeger, Mrs. Arthur Brinton, Mrs. Howard Buckman, Mrs. John Walker, and Mrs. Robert Titlow.

Mrs. Roland Porter reported that she and other members had visited Newtown borough council meetings, and also gave a lengthy report on the Neshaminy Valley Youth Center, which will be formally opened early in November.

The next league meeting will be October 3rd at which time a skit on the "Pennsylvania Plan" will be presented by some members. This meeting is to study the "Pennsylvania Plan," which will be voted upon Oct. 15th.

A tea was enjoyed by 40 in attendance.

Final plans were made for a covered dish supper to be held this evening. It was decided to purchase silverware for the church. The October meeting will be at the home of Mrs. John Rank, Fallington, with Mrs. William Lobecker as co-hostess.

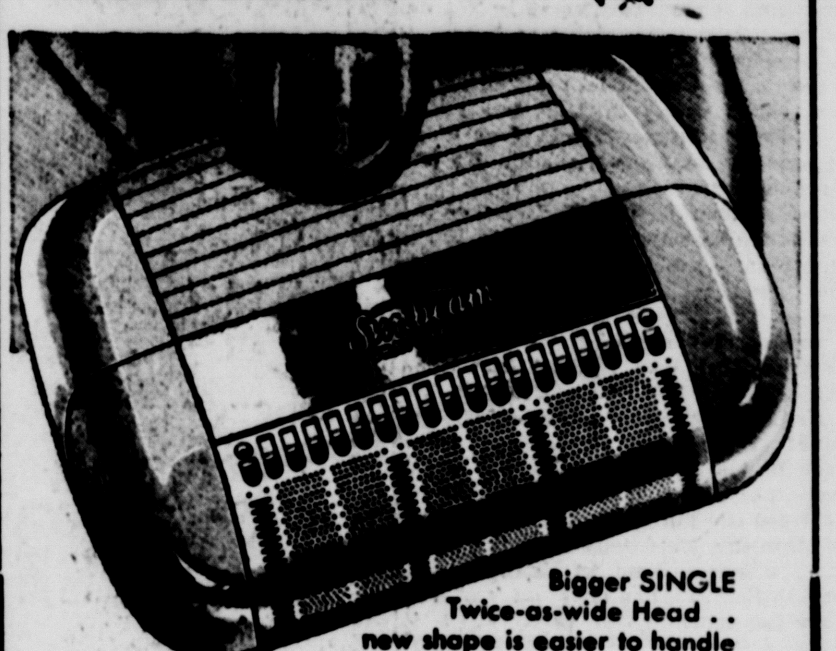

Ice cream, cup cakes, nuts and candy were served by the co-hostesses, Mrs. E. H. Shoemaker and Mrs. Mable Stegmann.

Directs Costs Be Paid In Case By A Langhorne Man

the costs on you, has grave suspicions of your story. You used very poor judgment. Why you wouldn't withdraw, if as you say, Hewitt had a scythe in his hand, is more than the Court can understand."

The defendant admitted that he acted stupidly and thanked the jury for its not guilty verdict, saying, "I have only eight months more to go until I become an American citizen. I can't join any American Aeronautical Societies as long as I am an alien because they are very careful in selecting their members, and I feel after I am an American I will be able to get back on my feet again."

Tanner, an Oxford University graduate, admitted he should never have lost his head, but should have taken his quarrel with the prosecutor to civil court instead of attempting to settle it by argument.

The one charged with assault and battery, Leslie Tanner, 41, of Langhorne R. D. 3, denied that he struck Robert H. Hewitt, 47, of Huntingdon Valley, during an argument August 10th about two cesspools which overflowed on the defendant's property.

Hewitt, who was mowing grass with a scythe along Sterner Mill road, Lower Southampton twp., testified he was working near the Tanner, property when the defendant began an argument with him.

Hewitt denied that he struck at the defendant with a motion of the scythe, but that the defendant rushed at him, struck him in the face, and knocked him down.

The defendant, who testified he bought his home from Hewitt and that Hewitt holds the mortgage, explained that Hewitt refused to go over to his place and see the damage the cesspools did when they flooded the garden.

Mrs. Dorothy May Snow, R. N., Croydon, a nurse, said she gave first aid to Hewitt when he appeared at the Langhorne physician's office.

Dr. W. L. Noe, Langhorne, testified he treated Hewitt for laceration of the left eye, one black eye, and bruises on the left lower lip. He was quite perturbed and given a dose of anti-toxin to prevent tetanus because he was dirty and had rolled around on the ground.

Trooper Michael Metrolka, of Langhorne sub-station of state police, testified Hewitt's face was bloody and that he had a black eye when he appeared at the station to file a complaint.

Mrs. Mary Hewitt, wife of the builder, testified that she had a telephone conversation with the defendant who said, "I'll give it to Hewitt if I do three months for it."

William B. Nixon, Phila., a salesman for Hewitt, said the defendant said, "I will beat him up or give him a licking."

The defendant, an Englishman, who has been in this country four years, admitted that he called Hewitt a "low rat." "Hewitt swung at me with his scythe and I may have swung at him I never threatened to beat him up."

Mrs. Alice Turner, a neighbor, testified she saw Hewitt swing a scythe.

Justice of the Peace Horace A. Cooper, Langhorne, testified that at the hearing, August 10, Mrs. Turner said she saw nothing, but heard screams and that the defendant said, "I lost my head and struck Mr. Hewitt."

Trooper Howard C. Shook, of the Langhorne sub-station, corroborated Justice of the Peace Cooper's evidence.

The jury was composed of Bettyann Sayre, Southampton; George K. Yerkes, Langhorne, RD 1; Harry S. Trumbauer, Quakertown; Sarah T. Fretz, Newtown; Clarence S. Weiss, Quakertown, RD; John C. Gamo, Doylestown; Florence M. Campbell, Bristol, RD; Mary E. Roberts, Morrisville, RD; Charles Albrecht, Sellersville, RD; William Cooper, Bristol; Norman E. Tomlinson, Newtown, RD, and Louis E. Fresh, Coopersburg, RD 1.

A Prayer of Thankfulness

Lord, we thank Thee for all the blessings of life. May we be so overjoyed that these radiant thoughts we too must share with others about us! As spontaneous vessels of Thy love, may our joy be contagious so that those about us may have a similar cheerfulness about their person; their difficulties dissolved by the explosive power of a new affection; and may they continually be thankful to Thee. SPORTSMEN'S BRIEFS

BY JOE ELBERSON

Big outing this Sunday . . . one of the most important yearly events for local sportsmen, their families and friends will take place this Sunday, September 24th, when the Bristol Fish & Game Protective Association holds its Annual Outing on the club's grounds, west of Bath Road at Silver Lake.

Extensive preparations have been made by the committee in charge which promises a day of fun and pleasure for all who attend. There are no admission charges and the public is cordially invited.

One of the highlights of the outing will be a 16-yard, 50-bird blue-rock (Lewis Class) target shoot. This will get underway at noon. Entry for the Lewis Class purse money, however, is optional, if practice only is desired.

Another highlight will be a special baitcasting tournament for juniors. It will be the occasion for the annual tournament for boys and girls up to 18 years of age, living in lower Bucks County, competing for the beautiful C. W. Winter Trophy. Winner last year was Ken Jones, Jr., the Croynod. The trophy must be won three times before it becomes the Croynod. The trophy must be won three times before it becomes the Croynod. The trophy must be won three times before it becomes the Croynod.

Still another feature will be the annual fishing contest sponsored by the Association for all Pennsylvania resident licensed anglers, members and non-members alike, and for the juniors. All entries will be eligible, except carp and eels, which are taken from Maple Beach, Silver Lake or the Canal. All entries must be weighed in at the club grounds between 12 noon and 2 p. m. on Sunday. The Fish Committee will be in charge of the weighing in program. Prizes will be awarded in both the junior and senior divisions for the heaviest entry in each division.

Special events have been arranged for the children and ladies. Other events will be held for casters, rifle and pistol shooters, plus special novelty events. Prizes will be awarded. Refreshments will be available at the outing.

Bristol winners . . . eleven-year old Bill Brady took second place honors in the 3/4 ounce plus accuracy baitcasting event (B Class) held last Sunday in Philadelphia under the auspices of the Dover Fishing Club, and 4th place in the 3/4 ounce event (B Class). There were 175 entries in the two events from all sections of the east.

Oliver Hobbs, casting in the A Class, scored in three events: 1st in the 3/4 ounce novelty; 2nd in the 5/8 ounce accuracy; and third in the 5/8 ounce slush.

For food and cover . . . during the Game Commission's last fiscal year, food and cover for wildlife were improved on approximately 35,000 acres of State Game Lands, cooperative farm-game projects and other leased areas. More than 2,814,000 tree, shrub and vine seedlings, and 31,700 transplants and cuttings were planted on widely scattered Commission holdings. Over 1,000,000 of these were distributed to farm game cooperators and were planted to reduce erosion and improve food and cover conditions for game. Nearly twenty-five percent of these plants were raised on Commission-owned lands, the remainder having been purchased from other sources.

Gun book . . . hunters can become more successful big game hunters by learning how to sight in their rifles before taking to the field this fall. This is described and shown in actual photographs in the new "Practical Book of American Guns" by Captain John Houston Craig which has just been released.

Posed by Captain Jack Lacy, veteran hunter and famed Winchester gun tester, the pictures show, step-by-step, the procedure of sighting-in a rifle in the field.

Captain Craig's book, intended for the beginning shooter, gives information and tips on almost all phases of shooting. The book is published by the World Publishing Company.

Coming up . . . sometime this afternoon I'll be leaving for a week-end of fishing in Maryland in search of the striped bass on rivers feeding Chesapeake Bay. Have never tried this before, but am told that the fish are there now and providing plenty of action.

Meeting . . . next Tuesday evening, at 8 o'clock, members of the Edgely Rod & Gun Club will meet in the meeting room of the Edgely Community Building. Members are asked to attend and other interested sportsmen are invited.

2ND WARD TO PLAY FRANKLIN TONIGHT

Second Ward and Franklin will play its first game of the finals of the Bristol Suburban Softball League this evening on Memorial Park field. Game will begin at 5:30 o'clock.

Second Ward won the regular season championship with 21 wins and 3 defeats. It captured 20 games in a row and even won the annual All-Star game.

Franklin entered the finals by eliminating Fire Company No. 1 in the quarter-finals and Jefferson A. C. in the semi-finals. It won the latter series, two-out of three.

Second Ward lost one of its star players, Leo Fiorelli, who is now serving in the armed forces.

"Chick" Stansky will throw 'em for the Warders with Nate Chichiletti behind the plate. Other players who will probably see action for the season champs are: Sagolla, Sam Sottile, Gene Barbetta, Joe Sallustio, Michael Perrone, Gene Mount, Joe Stallone, Lou Pezzullo, Harry Accardi, Jim Sottile, Al Garbelli, Ernie Pinelli, John Fior-elli, Cornelius Chichiletti.

ST. ANN'S READY FOR OPENING GRID GAME

The St. Ann's team is practically ready for its opening skirmish in the Northeast Football Conference. The "Saints" will hold another drill Sunday morning on Memorial field at ten o'clock. However, Coach "Pete" Borneice would like to see all players at the St. Ann's clubhouse at nine o'clock. He will issue uniforms at that time.

Coach Borneice has announced that Joe Andriotti, star backfield ace of Northeast Catholic High School last season, will don a Purple and Gold uniform. He has also switched Stan Lelinski to the back-field.

St. Ann's meets the Olney Vets at Olney next Thursday night and will play Rockne A. A. under the lights, here, on Saturday night, Oct. 7th. Both of these tilts are league games.
